— Lexi Baines, Cowichan Valley Citizen

"a Voice like Melted Chocolate"

— Goody Niosi, The Harbour City Star

"Anna is a gifted vocalist who is able to paint amazing grooves with her many different vocal palettes...sultry and artful with a range here of at least four octaves...."

— Dr. Ana Isabel Ordonez, JazzReview

"Anna Lyman is a genuine Jazz singer"

— Richard Bourcier, Jazz Review

"makes us want to drink champagne"

— Jan de Grassi, The Coast Reporter

"Lyman has a powerful voice with a genuine passion that shines through on every note...a distinctly personal perspective"

— Alexandria Stuart, The Harbour City Star

...this passionate and sophisticated jazz veteran is one of the most versatile singers on the circuit today.
(Victoria International Jazzfest)

"That's right, the Motown Soul senorita is back with her newest release, "Sway-Quien Sera...a zesty, soul searching mix of salsa and jazz blues is a colorful bloom in today's music wasteland. It's a breath of fresh air to say the least."

— STEPHEN WORTMAN, Rutgers Newark OBSERVER

"...it would be a mistake to assume her repertoire is limited to Brazilian flavoured numbers. She also does a straight ahead version of an early RAY CHARLES hit "Drown in My Own Tears" and a terrific original called "Get Lost" which reminds me of those jazzy kiss offs to errant lovers that worldly wise singers like PEGGY LEE and CARMEN McRAE used to dish out back in the day. (I'd like to hear Astrud Gilberto pull that off!)"
