UKULELE INSTRUCTOR

Anna (Acevedo) Lyman

Instructor, Live Performer

Anna is a working musician,
recording artist and educator,
based on Vancouver Island, British Columbia...

Anna Acevedo Lyman, B.Mus., is a teaching/live performing "ukulelist", who has a unique set of influences and formal education which give her an uncommonly wide musical and educational perspective. Growing up in Detroit Michigan, during the Motown era, and in a Latinamerican home and being exposed to her family's eclectic tastes, ensured that her cultural perspective would be wide, and would include world music. Completing her education in British Columbia, also made her aware of Canadian needs with regard to music creation and instruction. She is also the founder of the performing ukulele duo, JAZZALELE (www.jazzalele.com)

Noticing the need for ukulele education , Anna started and currently maintains, the growing Nanaimo Ukulele Circle. Anna is a talented songwriter and arranger of ukulele and vocal music. Pages: www.ukecircle.com Her ukulele band page is located at www.jazzalele.com. Other pages are: www.annalyman.com

EDUCATION: Anna Lyman has a Bachelor of Music from Vancouver Island University, Majoring in Jazz Vocal Performance, with a Minor in Guitar.

Afterward, she studied the UKULELE with Hawaiian Masters Kimo Hussey, and Keoki Kahumoku. Mr. Hussey is a Hawaiian Master Ukulelist, who encouraged her to begin teaching the ukulele, and is her mentor in all things ukulele. Under his continual guidance, she started the Nanaimo Ukulele Circle in 2010, with Steve Sutton, a Ukulele instructor at Tom Lee, Victoria. In addition, Anna has also taken a semester of Bachelor of Education at VIU, 2009/10.
